It made no difference if it was baseball, football, bull riding, golf, or any other sport, he followed every sport closely, watching sports on television as often as he could and reading the sports section of the newspaper on a daily basis. He had a wonderful collection of tee shirts, jerseys and caps representing a large number of teams and people.

Larry was also very active in his church from a very early age. He was an avid Bible reader and had a nice collection of Bibles as well. His faith gave him the assurance he needed to allow him to pass away peacefully.

Larry was preceded in death by both his parents.

Those left to cherish his memory and continue his legacy are his sister, Carolyn West (Billy), niece Kristy Burr (Joe), niece Lisa Bachhofer (Chuck), nephew William Eugene West, niece Laurie Lorraine Olezaba (Armando), nephew Bruce George West, many loving family members, co-workers, and friends.
