“ mom we did not always see eye to eye but the one thing i always knew was that you stood behind me and encouraged me to be who i was, even when i was not sure who that was...i miss you and wish you hadnt left so soon,i always just took for granted that you were always gonna be here... im just kinda rambling here i keep waiting for you to tell me that its all gonna be ok,and to get up and show the world who you are,well im gonna do just that mom. i knew i would some day just really thought you were gonna be there to see it... This is the day the lord hath made,let us be glad and rejoice in it. love you mom

“ I love you very much and, I can't believe you left so fast. I know I have only known you a little while, but, during that time you've chnged my whole perspective on the world around me it is like my surrounding are not valid without you. Here is my memory... When we were at your little cute trailer and, you called me into the bedroom to lay beside you and, after that you told me how much you loved me it made me so warm inside, it was a very soothing sentence the way it came out of your mouth. The another time, when you were making you homemade chicken and dumplings and you got upset because, I told you I didn't like it :) , Anyways, you were always there for me as well as Safronia and the rest of the grand kids. I know you are in a better place other than the harsh cruel world R.I.P We all love you so much and will miss you until the world ends and we see eachother once, again...Goodbye! (not forever though)
