“ When my wife and I migrated from Iowa to Chicago in 1972, Wilma and my sister Mickey took us in (we were just a couple of poor hippies at the time) and showed us what a loving family is supposed to look like. Our life was changed forever (we're still together 48 years later so something stuck). Wayne and Cindy, thanks for sharing her and our love to you all.

“ I have not known Sis. Wilma very long but she was a wonderful addition to our church. When she felt well enough to come to church she had a wonderful sweet smile for everyone. She was a very special lady and will be greatly missed.
